

Program Mission (M.O.L.)

The mission of the Master of Organizational Leadership Program at Wilmington College is to prepare skilled, research experienced, interpersonally oriented, and self-aware leaders who can navigate complex organizations of all types and who expect to assume increasingly influential roles in the development and improvement of their communities and workplaces.