

Program Vision

The vision of the Occupational Therapy Program at Wilmington College is to prepare innovative, community-driven leaders with an ability to educate, inspire, and problem solve for citizens in underserved rural areas.