

OL630 : BUSINESS ETHICS AND DIVERSITY

Business Ethics and Diversity utilizes mindfulness practices and focuses on the ethical dimension of business leadership with particular attention given to diversity. The main concern of the course is the creation of more humane organizational cultures. Students will be given the means to develop the mindful, conceptual, emotional, personal, and organizational skills needed to be an ethical leader.

Credits 3