

Program Vision (M.S.)

The vision of the Wilmington College Occupational Therapy Program is to be recognized as a competent provider of occupational therapy practitioners that are prepared to provide quality health care and outreach services to meet the demands of a diverse society, with an emphasis on the health care need in rural settings.